

Why Shop at a Farmer's Market?

- It supports the local economy.
- You can meet the farmers that grow your food.
- Fresh picked produce is more nutritious—IT'S GOOD for YOU!
- The prices are good for consumers and the money goes directly to the farmer.
- You can get new recipes and learn about local foods.
- You can meet and visit with other folks in the community
- You get the freshest and highest quality produce available.
- You can try something new!

Shopping Tips

- Bring a shopping bag.
- Have cash. Not all farmers' markets take credit cards.
- If you will be out for awhile bring a cooler to keep produce fresh.
- Walk through the market before making purchases.
- If you plan to make bulk purchase for canning or freezing come early or make arrangements with the producer.
- If you have questions ask, local producers know about their produce.
